Benefits and Privileges

1. Corporate Members will be given membership credentials to permit attendance at NAPE meetings.
2. A complete schedule of chapter meeting times, dates and locations will be provided to each Corporate Member upon request.
3. Corporate Members will have the privilege of contacting the NAPE National Office where all arrangements will be completed for presentation of products and/or services to the member.
4. Presentations would not be limited in content and can include "Hands-on" demonstrations and distribution of literature, catalogs and other printed materials.
5. Corporate Members should provide the Editor of the NATIONAL ENGINEER with a schedule of upcoming presentations by company representatives for proper coverage in the magazine.
6. Corporate Members are encouraged to provide photos and information on their upcoming presentations for coverage in the NATIONAL ENGINEER announcing the seminar in advance.
7. Along with exposure on the chapter level, the Corporate Member will receive national exposure in the NATIONAL ENGINEER with photos of the representatives and products discussed.
8. Corporate Members receive a substantial discount on advertising in the NATIONAL ENGINEER. As result of our membership paying for their annual subscription to NE, the magazine has one of the highest percentages of reader response.
